

SCHOOL ANNUAL REPORT 2022-23

"A new school year means new beginnings, new adventures, new friendships, and new challenges"

- Denise Witmer.

The new session 2022-23 started with a lot of enthusiasm for all the wings on 7th, 14th and 21st March 2022 respectively.

As the children stepped into campus after a long period of struggle due to school closure as a result of Covid-19, it was a concern that they need to be prepared to be future ready and foresee where they want themselves in ages to come.

Hence, Orientation programs were conducted for classes VI to VIII on 21st March 2022 in the school auditorium. The sessions were led by our senior teachers Mr. A.K.Sah and Mr. Sudhanshu Sinha. Students of classes XII, IX and X were also guided for better future on 22nd and 23rd March 2022 respectively.

Although the world had resumed to normal after a long waiting period, health and safety of children will remain a major concern. Our school acted as a vaccination center on 31st March and 1st April 2022, for the children in the age group of 12 to 15 years.

A well prepared and engaging teacher is a catalyst..... a spark that creates a desire to learn in students.

- Robert John Meehan

A Teachers' Orientation program was conducted on 2nd April 2022. Our respected Principal, Sr. Kamala Paul was the spokesperson of the day. She enlightened the teachers with her encouraging words. The day was full of learnable, entertaining activities.

The more you praise and celebrate your life, the more there is in life to celebrate.

- Oprah Winfrey

Each day has its own significance that makes it beautiful and remarkable in its own way. In honor of special calendar days, assembly presentations were done so they could remain afresh in the young minds with their importance.

Through the medium of a special presentation on the Labor Day all our support staff were thanked for their silent contribution day in and day out.
